

Stainer Project 2014

“God so loved the world” is a well loved anthem by the Victorian composer John Stainer. In fact it is the central piece in his oratorio for two soloists, choir and organ, “The Crucifixion”. Each year the parish choir of St Thomas Becket performs the whole piece as part of the Lenten journey. Everyone is invited to be part of it. Please contact our choir director Yotin Tiewtrakul: yotin.tiewtrakul@gmail.com or 0176 72364865 (mobile phone)

John Stainer – The Crucifixion (1887)

Thursday, 10th April 2014, 7pm

Anglican Church of St Thomas Becket
Zeughausmarkt 22, 20457 Hamburg

Tenor: Piet Zorn, Bass: Lukas Dittmann, Organ: Jochim Trede,
Parish Choir, Director of Music: Yotin Tiewtrakul

- Rehearsal 1: Tuesday, 18 March, 6.30pm-8pm
- Rehearsal 2: Tuesday, 25 March, 6.30pm-8pm
- Rehearsal 3: Tuesday, 1 April, 6.30pm-8pm
- Rehearsal 4: Sunday, 6 April, 3pm-5pm
- Dress rehearsal: Monday, 7 April, 6.30pm
- Performance: Thursday, 10 April, 6pm warming up, 7pm performance

Four rehearsals were scheduled counting on all the singers to commit to learn their parts at home. There is a website where you can listen to your part:

<http://www.learnchoralmusic.co.uk/Stainer/Crucifixion/crucifixion.html>

I can send you a copy of the music, or you can download the score here:

<http://imslp.org/>

See also on the choir director's blog:

<http://openthouourlips.wordpress.com/current-project/>